Critics' choice

1 Berlinde de Bruyckere solo exhibition Galleria Continua, Dec 15-Mar 17

This Belgian artist works with materials such as wax, wood, horsehair and skin to create haunting sculptures reminiscent of human figures.

2 'Strait is the Gate': Jiang Zhi solo exhibition Magician Space, until Dec 30

Repetitive structures and discarded firework casings litter the gallery, as the artist investigates how humans construct the forms that surround them – from cities to household and industrial products.

3 'Dreams of China': Irene Kung solo exhibition The Temple Hotel, Dec 5-Feb 8

Check out these sensual photographs, depicting some of China's most famous monuments in moody – and sometimes fairy-tale – dark tones (pictured, above).
